Student's Corner

Hope

During an autumn fall
A tree loses it all
Even though its every leaf rives
With a hope it lives
For the new fruit and thrives.

After a heavy storm and a cold breeze Comes the beautiful rainbow and the humming bees.

After a drought
Comes the torrent of rain
That takes away all the suffering and pain

Bad days come not to stay
But to apprise us that the good days are on their way.
